PRAYING FOR ONE ANOTHER

Monday 19th October

Rosskeen

We've had conversions as a prayer point as a congregation throughout this year and we'd ask you to join us in praying that we would see people coming to know the LORD.

Tuesday 20th October

Winchburgh

SU groups: Give Thanks for the 18 children attending the local primary SU group and their eagerness to learn God's Word. Pray For wisdom, open doors, and resources as we look to launch a second group in the new primary school and a third group in the secondary school.

Wednesday 21st October

Muriel Macleod, Cambodia

Please pray for the youth returning to the dorms. Pray for us all as we adjust to living together again, remembering us as we worship together each evening. Pray that God would use the youth and myself as witnesses in the school and community.

Thursday 22nd October

Rosskeen

Pray for our young folks. We are so blessed and we would pray for our young folks to be engaged with, and passionate for, the LORD. Pray too for the school chaplaincy work in our community - 8 primary schools and two academies.

Friday 23rd October

Winchburgh

Baby Café: Give thanks For the strong weekly turnout of local parents and babies every Monday. Pray that God would build genuine trust and friendships, opening up natural opportunities for Gospel-centered conversations.

Saturday 24th October

Rosskeen

Pray that we would continue to know the presence of the LORD in our gatherings and that we would grow as a congregation in the knowledge of the LORD. Pray with us as we seek as a Church leadership to plan for the future. Pray that we would know the LORD's guidance.

Sunday 25th October

Winchburgh

New Team / Community Members: Give Thanks: For Dillon and Cody Bennett's arrival in Scotland from just outside Atlanta, Georgia. Pray For a smooth transition and settling-in period, and that God would fruitfully work in and through them in Winchburgh.
